

Forget-Me-Not Sourcing

People. Planet. Passion.

Forget-Me-Not Sourcing is an online interactive textile library for emerging fashion designers constrained by time and funding who need help navigating the complex world of environmentally and socially responsible fabrics. With a subscription, designers are given tools to make sustainable design a reality.

How does Forget-Me-Not Sourcing work?

Find the hottest sustainable textiles with easy-to-use fabric filters, that sort textiles by fiber, specs, environmental and social criteria, location, and minimum order size.

What else will Forget-Me-Not's services do for you?

The team will travel the world to find the best environmentally and socially responsible fabrics for your design needs!

The easy-to-use interface consolidates the world of sustainable fabrics, simplifying the sourcing process.

A seasonal sourcing survey will allow you to have input on which fabrics get uploaded to the Forget-Me-Not website.

Real-time updates will keep you on top of sustainable apparel trends, news and events.
